

Fraud-Hunt Basic Non-Disclosure Agreement

This non-disclosure agreement ("Agreement") is governed by the International Anti-Fraud Alliance. The purpose is to prevent unauthorized disclosure of confidential information. Protection of Fraud-Hunt & Victimized Client's Information

1. Definition of Confidential Information.

Victimized users are prohibited from informing the Fraud-Hunt that the Alliance is tracking their project(When Fraud-Hunt is helping a victim recover funds, the victim must do so confidentially)

2. Obligations of the recipient.

Fraud-Hunt is obliged to keep the basic information provided by the victim (When the victim's information is approved, it must be stored and destroyed in a block-chain decentralized way to prevent unlawful commercial exploitation)

3. Relationship definition.

The Fraud-Hunt consortium acts as the party handling the case and the victim-client is the party being handled. The relationship between the two parties is one of mutual assistance. Once a victim's case is received by Fraud-Hunt, Fraud-Hunt must do its utmost to help the victim recover the lost funds, using advanced technology and a well-established team. (Victims are required to follow Fraud-Hun's instructions every step of the way)

4. Time Period.

The confidentiality provisions of this Agreement shall survive termination of this Agreement and the Recipient's obligation to keep Confidential Information confidential shall survive until the Confidential Information no longer qualifies as a trade secret or until the Disclosing Party sends written notice to the Recipient to release the Recipient from this Agreement, whichever occurs first. (Victim is required to cooperate as reasonably requested by Fraud-Hunt as necessary for the progress of each recovery amount)

5. Severability.

If International Anti-Fraud Alliance determines that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall be construed to best effectuate the intent of the parties.

6. Integration.

This Agreement expresses the full understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter and supersedes all prior proposals, agreements, representations and understandings. This Agreement may not be modified except by a written document signed by both parties. (Because Fraud-Hunt's approach to recovering funds is to utilize advanced block-chain technology and hacking teams and can only be done in the online world)

7. Waiver.

Failure to exercise any rights under this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of prior or subsequent rights. Tracing will be discontinued. (Funds recovered by Fraud-Hunt are donated to charity as welfare funds for decentralized destruction)
